

AESOP Sustainable Food Planning Conference

9 – 10 October 2009

De Kemphaan, Almere, The Netherlands

Day 1 – Generating ideas, exchanging experiences and comparing perspectives
09.00 – 09.30	Welcome and coffee/tea
09.30 – 09.45	Food and planning: an introduction to the conference	Prof. Kevin Morgan (Professor of Governance & Development, Cardiff University, UK)
09.45 – 10.00	Including food and agriculture in urban planning: the Almere approach	Mr. Henk Mulder (director urban planning Almere)
10.00 – 11.00	Session 1: Setting the scene
10.00 – 10.30	An integrated and territorial perspective on food studies, policy and planning	Prof. Han Wiskerke (Chair of Rural Sociology – Wageningen University, Netherlands)
10.30 – 11.00	Feeding the city: practices, challenges and lessons from developing countries	Mr. Henk de Zeeuw (director of the RUA Foundation)
11.00 – 11.30	Coffee/tea break
11.30 – 13.00	Session 2: Theoretical perspectives and academic issues
11.30 – 12.00	Reconnecting consumers and producers: dynamics, diversity and potentials of alternative food networks	Prof. Gianluca Brunori (Professor of Agriculture Economics – Pisa University, Italy)
12.00 – 12.30	Urban food and public spaces: planning for security and sustainability	Dr. Roberta Sonnino (Lecturer in Environmental Planning – Cardiff University, UK)
12.30 – 13.00	Food and the city: the links between food, public health and sustainable urban development	Dr. Martin Caraher (Reader in Food & Health Policies – City University London, UK)
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch break
14.00 – 15.30	Session 3: Food planning practices and policies
14.00 – 14.30	Food and agriculture in Europe's peri-urban regions	Mrs. Dwarshuis (President of Peri-Urban Regions Platform Europe – PURPLE)
14.30 – 15.00	The practice of food planning in New York city	Dr. Nevin Cohen (Associate Professor in Urban Studies – New School for Liberal Arts, New York)
15.00 – 15.30	Amsterdam's food strategy ("Proeftuin Amsterdam")	Mr. Bart Pijnenburg MSc (Programme manager Proeftuin Amsterdam)
15.30 – 16.00	Coffee/tea break
16.00 – 18.00	Different options: networking / visiting the estate & farm / project meetings / etc...
18.00 – 22.00	Drinks & Diner (Restaurant De Kemphaan - Almere)
Day 2 – Towards an agenda for sustainable food planning
09.00 – 09.30	Welcome and coffee/tea
09.30 – 10.00	Including food in planning studies and planning practices: experiences from the USA	Prof. Jerry Kaufman (Professor Emeritus of Urban and Regional Planning - University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA)
10.00 – 10.45	Issues, topics, themes for a sustainable food planning agenda (plenary inventory)	Moderated by Prof. Arnold van der Valk (Chair of Land Use Planning – Wageningen University, NL)
10.45 – 11.15	Coffee/tea break
11.15 – 12.45	Developing the building blocks for a sustainable food planning agenda (parallel working sessions)
12.45 – 14.00	Lunch break
14.00 – 14.45	Plenary presentation of and discussion about results of parallel working sessions	Moderated by Prof. Terry Marsden (Professor of Environmental Planning – Cardiff University, UK)
14.45 – 15.00	Sustainable food planning in Europe: concluding reflection and look ahead	Prof. Kevin Morgan (Professor of Governance & Development, Cardiff University, UK)
15.00	Coffee & tea / end of conference	